ECONOMY CLUB HELD MEETING LAST NIGHT

First Paper Of the Season Was Read.

LARGE ATTENDANCE.

Indications Point To Brilliant Future For the Club.

The first official meeting of the Economics Club was held last night in Strathcona Hall. There was a large attendance, including a number of returned men who had been members in pre-war days, and the club was given a splendid send-off on its yearly programme.

Dr. Leacock opened the meeting with a few well-chosen remarks regarding the work of the club and emphasizing the importance of the economic questions of the day. Dr. Hemming then followed, confirming and adding to his remarks.

The paper of the evening was given by Mr. L. Kern, on the subject of "Canadian Finance." The subject was divided into three main headings, viz., expenditure, revenue and the national debt. In addition, a subsidiary heading was added regarding war finance.

The discussion under the first heading centred about the vitally important question, "Can the expenditure be reduced?" During the war there has been a yearly increase in expenditure and a corresponding decrease in revenue, and just at present indications point to a further increase in expenditure. It was pointed out that as far as capital outlay is concerned, a reduction can reasonably be made. With regard to current expenditure, there appears to be much expense that can be abandoned, but it is a much-debated question with strong arguments for either side.

The second item to be dealt with was that of revenue. At present our chief sources of revenue are: First, the customs; secondly, the excise; thirdly, the Dominion lands; and, fourthly, railways and public works. During the war a large source of revenue was derived from the excise taxes on liquors and tobacco; but since prohibition was enacted, this has become insignificant. With our expenditure steadily increasing, it is evident that the revenue must by some means be increased. The great question is, "Where is it to come from?" Mr. Kern showed that a great part must be derived from direct and indirect taxation, although other sources, particularly the customs duties, will for years be important factors.

Taxation as a whole has received but a small share of public interest in recent years in Canada. The reason for this is doubtless the persistence (Continued on Page 3)

SECOND LECTURE BY DR. WITHROW

The Film "How Life Begins" Shown Will Be Repeated Saturday.

Last night, Dr. Withrow delivered the second of his series of lectures on sex hygiene before a large audience, in the Central Y.M.C.A. His subject, which was developed by means of a film entitled "The Beginnings of Life," proved to be a most interesting one, and kept the large audience interested from start to finish. The film portrayed the different forms of animal life and their genesis, from the lowest form of single-celled life all the way up the scale to the mammals, and was replete with some wonderful photographic effects, which evoked murmurs of applause from the audience.

Dr. Withrow spoke in his usual frank and practical manner, and developed his subject skillfully, omitting technicalities and simplifying it so that all could understand the essential points in the development of the embryo and kindred processes. His method of explanation was particularly easy of apprehension, and it is safe to say that no one left the hall without having added something to his store of knowledge on this all-important subject.

The lecture was delivered under the auspices of the Social Service Club, and the latter are deserving of congratulations on its success and on their handling of the meeting. The film will be shown again, by popular demand, to-morrow, while this evening Dr. Withrow will deliver another lecture on a kindred topic, illustrated with lantern views.

INFORMAL DANCE STARTS AT EIGHT

Over Two Hundred Couples Expected At the Union To-Night.

To-night, the first of the series of informal dances to be given by the Students' Council will take place in the Union. Every detail has been arranged by the committee in charge, and the fixture promises to be one of the most successful ever held here. The 225 tickets which were put on sale, went in record time, and 8.00 p.m. should see 450 people assembled in the ballroom and in the lounging room on the second floor.

In order to complete the programme before midnight, in accordance with the wishes of the Committee on Social Functions, it was found necessary to begin dancing not later than the above hour. This will afford ample time for refreshments, and the usual rush at the end will be avoided. The dancers in the lounging room will go downstairs for refreshments promptly at 9.45 p.m., and the remainder at 10.15 p.m.

The following ladies have kindly consented to act as patronesses: Miss Hurlbutt, Mrs. Moyse, Mrs. MacDonald and Mrs. Forbes.

The programme, as it will be played by the orchestra to-night, is:

Extra Extra — One Step.

- 1.—Waltz.
- 2.—One Step.
- 3.—Fox Trot.
- 4.—Waltz.
- 5.—One Step.

HOFMANN TO PLAY.

A musical event of great interest will take place on Sunday afternoon, when Mr. Josef Hofmann, the noted pianist, will play at His Majesty's theatre.

Josef Hofmann is a celebrated artist, in fact he is looked upon as the world's greatest pianist, and his performances are always keenly anticipated by music lovers.

The appearance of a musician of such a calibre in Montreal will be hailed eagerly by McGill students who enjoy the very best in music.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

The third lecture of Dr. Withrow's course will be given to-night at the Central Y.M.C.A. Hall, Drummond street. This lecture will be illustrated by 103 slides. On Saturday evening, by popular demand, the film "How Life Begins" will be shown again. A number of tickets for both these lectures may still be had by applying at the Hall to-day, between the hours of 4.00 and 6.00.

PHYSICAL SOCIETY.

Prof. E. G. Burr will address the society on "A New Copper Alloy for Electrical Purposes" at 4.45 p.m. to-day. All interested are cordially invited to attend.

"MACCABEAN CIRCLE."

The next meeting of the above society will be held on Sunday, Nov. 9th, at 2.30 p.m., at the Royal Arcanum Chambers. An interesting programme has been arranged, and all members are asked to be present.

ROOTERS' CLUB PRACTISE NEW PEPPY YELLS

"Silk" Murphy Leads In Popular Songs.

EIGHTY PRESENT.

Shag Encourages Rooters To Further Efforts—Rooting Invaluable To Team.

The Rooters' Club turned up, eighty strong, at Strathcona Hall last night, and a varied programme of songs, yells and whistling was carried out. Sid McSweeney was at the piano, and proved an able performer. Archie Jenks, Keith Hutchison and "Silk" Murphy alternately led the rooters.

The club practised several yells, among which were Toronto, Queen's, and a new auxiliary yell to McGill. It runs like this: "Kick 'em high—Tackle low—Are you ready?—Let 'em go!" With the proper inflexions this should make a good alternative for "We're out for gore."

Two new yells were introduced, and proved a great success with the fellows. One was: "You gotta get that ball, McGill," and with such a yell as that, how could she help it? The other was, "There ain't no files on us!" And evidently there weren't, as this yell took the fancy of the rooters, and they raised the roof with it. Windows had to be opened — to let the yell out!

Keith Hutchison led in the old stand-bys, such as "Put on your red and white sweater," "Now our team is on the field," and "James McGill." These proved popular, as usual, and were sung with a will.

"Silk" Murphy interspersed the college songs and yells with a little high class vaudeville and popular songs. "Ja-Da"—the song that made "Silk" Murphy famous — was rendered with a vim, and was speeded up to give "Silk" a chance to "shimmy." "Take me to the land of Jazz," although not so well known, was whistled and sung very creditably. "Silk" is certainly a valuable addition to the staff of the Rooters' Club; and the three leaders, A. N. Jenks, Keith Hutchison and "Silk" Murphy will turn out some fine stuff at the next game.

The new parody on "Bubbles," "We're Always Scoring Touchdowns," was practised, and will be a great success. Other melodies were introduced and old songs re-sung. The meeting, which proved very successful, ended with the McGill yell.

"Shag" says that the rooters are invaluable to the team, and go a long way towards the winning of a match. It is encouraging to the rooters to know that their efforts are appreciated, and a greater turnout than ever is requested for Saturday's game with Queen's.

ENTHUSIASM IN LOAN CAMPAIGN

Competition Between Faculties—Arts Now Leading With Law Second.

The Victory Loan Campaign results in the last few days have been very encouraging to the canvassers. There has been much enthusiasm shown both by the workers and the students, and a spirit of friendly rivalry exists between the different faculties. Yesterday, Law was ahead with Arts second. To-day, Arts is ahead and Law has dropped into second place. Science and Medicine should see what they can do in the future.

All students would greatly help if they informed the faculty canvassers of names of prospective buyers. If there be a spirit of co-operation shown among the students, it is certain that this campaign will be brought to a satisfactory close.

The following are the results in each faculty:

ARTS	$5,200.00
LAW	3,800.00
SCIENCE	1,800.00
MEDICINE	1,100.00

TOTAL $11,900.00

AN APPRECIATION.

The Arts Undergraduate Society wish to thank the Strathcona Banjo Club, as well as the following men, for their help as entertainers: Adams, Konigsberg, McCall, Mader, Brouse, Mard.

WORTHY OF ARTS

The record of the Arts Faculty up to date in connection with the Victory Loan is worthy of more than passing comment. As compared with that of the other faculties, which with one exception are considerably larger, the subscription which is credited to the Arts men is, to say the least, creditable. They have set a pace which should inspire maximum effort on the part of the other departments. If the showing made by the Arts Faculty is at all typical of that which will in the final report characterize the University as a whole then we need have little concern regarding the part which McGill will take in the Victory Loan of 1919.

THE THEOLOGICAL STUDENTS

The recent reunion held in connection with the Wesleyan Theological College was a unique celebration in the annals of the theological colleges. Unfortunately inclement weather interfered seriously with the carrying out of the programme as drawn up, and for this reason the occasion was possibly not accorded the same publicity which would, under more favorable circumstances, have been given it. As an exemplification of college spirit and activity, however, we recognize in the recently terminated reunion what we choose to regard, and we trust that we are not unduly optimistic, an indication of a change of policy on the part of the undergraduate theological bodies.

On various occasions we have referred to the deplorable lack of association and actual affiliation between the students of the Theological Colleges and McGill. There has apparently been nothing in common between the students of the University and those of the Theological Department with whom they are thrown into daily contact.

In hailing this recent unique celebration as an indication that our theological friends have undergone a change of mind with regard to men of the other faculties we base our conclusion upon the fact that it was the intention of the management to hold the Sports Day at the Percival Molson Stadium, and that the programme embodied exactly the activities which appeal to the students body in general. In short, it would appear that at last there is a possibility that the students of the University proper and those of the Theological Colleges may have something in common.

It may appear from what has gone before that we are inclined to attribute the sum total of responsibility for the lack intercourse which has been heretofore existent solely to the apathy of the theological students. Frankly, we have long been of the opinion that such was to a great extent the case. We are not blind to the fact, however, that reciprocity is essential if the desirable relationship is to be established, and we are quite willing to admit that the University has a real duty to perform in this respect.

We are inclined to regard the recent activities of the Wesleyan students as a definite step in the right direction on their part.

That it will mark the birth of a new and true affiliation between the University and the theological body we sincerely hope.

AN ARCTIC EXPLORER.

James R. Crawford, of New York, one of the two members of the Stefansson Arctic expedition who was left on Banks Island two years ago, was here yesterday on his way home from the far north on the auxiliary schooner Herman. Mr. Crawford told of the hardships he endured during his forced stay of two years on Banks Island. His one attempt to reach the mainland in a small launch left by Mr. Stefansson met with failure in the ice floes.

A CYCLING RECORD.

Four hundred miles has been covered in 24 hours by an unpaired British cyclist, M. G. Selbach, of the Unity Cycling Club. This is the first occasion, it is stated, that this feat has been done in England and the winner who has previously done rides almost equally good, covered the distance at great speed and with great consistency. At the end of 12 hours 202 miles had been covered, and altogether 405 were covered during the ride. E. M. Inwood of the North Road Club, was second with 382 miles. J. G. Shaw, of Sheffield, third with 375 miles. Altogether 12 riders finished the course.

LETTERS OF A FRESHMAN.

Strathcona Hall,
The McGill University,
Nov. 3rd, 1919.

Dear Pa,—

Well, Pa, I guess I should have written sooner, but, gosh all hemlock, things seem to happen here just like Brown's cows — one after another! For example (this is French like they learn up to the Faculty of Art. You want to spring it on the boys up to Day's store, next Saturday night), par exemple, to-night there is a meeting of the Roofers' Club here in Strathcona Hall. It appears from what Austy Heron says, that they call it the Roofers' Club because they raise the roof — pretty good, eh, Pa! Anyways, the boys sing all sorts of songs and college calls, and have more fun than they do at the Methodist Church Box Social up at home. Austy told me the principle college call here which starts off like this: "Is there anything particularly the matter with old McGill? On no, you can safely make a sporting war upon that — Hurrah for dear old McGill University College!"

Say, Pa, is Hank Jones still hankerling (pretty good, eh Pa!) to be a boxer? If he is, tell him I said to take this here Nuxated Iron and lots of it, both external and internal. This is the reason, I was strolling along St. Catherine the other night and I seen a big sign which said read: "Jack Dempsey takes Nuxated Iron and look what he done to Willard." This may not mean much to you, Pa, but Dempsey is the feller who put it all over Jeff Willard down to Toledo a ways back, catch as catch can rules. It appears to me that I should tell Mr. Shaughnessy, the McGill Football Coachman about Nuxated Iron. The boys call Mr. Shaughnessy "Shag" on account he smokes so much of this here Johnny pea-soup tobacco. Of course, his real name ain't Shag at all. They just call him that for fun like.

Say, Pa, some of the students up here are too dum new. You try to do them a little kindness and they turn on you. Par exemple, when I first come up here, I was told that the most important thing was to pay proper respect to the Soapopores, and so far I have done it, always taking off my hat and the like, but no more of this for little SI — no Sir! This is the reason, I was walking up the avenue to the Faculty of Art the other day. Just ahead of me walked a Soapopore carrying a lot of books. Seeing the which I catches up to him and offers to carry his books, and what do you think the big stiff said? He turns to his friend and hollers: "Bring out the insect powder, here's another bug — back to the tall timbers and the husking bee, Hiram!" Drat it all, Pa, I was so dum mad, I could have bust him one on the jaw — so help me, catfish! I'll be everlastingly hornswoggled if I let any of these here ornery Soapopores give me the merry ha! ha! — ain't I right, Pa?

Do you remember me telling you about this here McGill Union where all the sick Students' exams are wrote for them? Well, Sir, there's an eating room in the Union where they serve meals at all hours and no questions asked. But the worst of it is that this eating room is for men students only which is a dum shame, I'll say she does! It appears that the women students want to eat at the Union and there was a movement on the foot to let them do it, but the Royal Victoria College Professors sat down on the suggestion like a ton of baled hay — pretty mean, I call it. I met one of the girls who want to eat at the Union the other day and by heck, Pa, if this girl was eating at the Union, I know I'd enjoy my meals a sight better. In fact, I don't think I'd waste time eating at all. Drat it, Pa, some of the girls up here at the McGill University ain't so dusty after all, and I may tell you about them later.

Sa Pa, there's great goings on over to the Faculty of Laws. There's going to be a football game right soon between the Freshmen and the 2nd, and 3rd, years and I'll be hornswoggled if they haven't got me down as Fall-back for the Freshmen — can you beat it? I asked Mr. Hilarious Robertson, the famous scrimmage expert of Laws '21 to explain the game to me and here's what he gave me. Seeing as I'm one of the Fallbacks, I stand in the rear field and wait for the ball to dribble over the deadline. As soon as it dribbles over the deadline, I'm supposed to chase it, bring it back and set it down between the goal-sticks. Remember this, though, Pa. As soon as I set the ball inside them goal-sticks, I have to holler out good and loud: "Point for our side — point for our side!" If the Empire don't hear me holler, it don't count at all. I guess I can holler with the best of 'em, eh Pa! I'll say she does!

Well, Pa, its about time little SI was delving into the dusty law volumes. In my next letter, I'm going to tell you about my troubles down to the Court House. Give my best to Ma and the girls.

Over the river,
Your loving son, SI.

P.S. The high cost of existing up here do beat all. A little government parchment would be jake, as the saying is.

HISTORICAL CLUB FILLS SPECIAL NEED

Was Formally Inaugurated This Week.

NEW SOCIETY.

Miss Brown Is President, and Many Graduates Are the Executive and In Club.

Among the many clubs that have come into being in the university since the opening of the session some five weeks ago is one that was formally inaugurated this week — one which is acclaimed by its members as unique among college clubs.

Women graduates and undergraduates in the department of history joined enthusiastically in the formation of the Historical Club of the Royal Victoria College last Tuesday evening. The forming of the new society brings to a fulfillment the long cherished plan of Miss Vera Brown, M.A., of the department of history, who had seen the need of an organization that should bring together women graduates who have taken honors in history or who have made it their major subject, with undergraduates who were specializing in the same subject. Not only did Miss Brown feel that there were many women graduates in history who would welcome any opportunity of meeting together for the discussion of history in its broader aspects, but she desired to forge a new link by which the "grads" of the Royal Victoria College might be bound to their Alma Mater and to the students who were succeeding them.

Accordingly, of the twenty members of the new club who attended its first formal meeting on Tuesday, a proportion were undergraduates and a still greater proportion were graduates. A less formal meeting for preliminary organization had been held a fortnight before. With Miss Brown in the chair on Tuesday, and with an enthusiastic membership behind her, the constitution of the new club was passed clause by clause. The intention of every member that the new Historical Club should be of as informal a character as possible, and that its programme should be as elastic and comprehensive as is the word "history," was obvious from the lively discussion on a dozen different points before the constitution finally emerged in a re-drafted form and met with universal approval.

The club will be a small one. Twenty-five members only will be admitted, the feeling being that a larger membership will tend to formality and to the inhibition of free and informal discussion. Though the Historical Club is intended primarily for the benefit of graduates and undergraduates who have done a considerable amount of academic work in history, seven out of the twenty-five may be graduates in other departments or even merely past students who are to-day desirous of studying historical problems. So a sprinkling of "grads" in philosophy, English, economics, etc., sat down with the History students proper, to plan a season of interesting meetings.

The election of officers followed the passing of the constitution. Miss Brown was unanimously elected president; Miss Mary Muir, B.A., vice-president; Miss Gwyneth Graig, B.A., secretary-treasurer; and Miss Enid Price, B.A., reporter.

Miss E. C. Longworth spoke briefly on the programmes of other historical clubs in the city. She proffered the suggestion, made to her by an outsider that is interested in the formation of the club, that the problems arising from the peace treaty and the League of Nations be made the programme of the winter's meetings. It was felt, however, by most of the members present, that such a programme was somewhat too ambitious for the opening session of the club, and it is probable that the programme will not follow any definite scheme. Every member of the club will probably be given an opportunity to address her fellow members on that subject or problems in past or current history which most interests her.

The next meeting will be held on November 18.

FOOTBALL RULES.

No better example of the necessity of all the players on an eleven being thoroughly grounded in the rules of the game and awake all the time could be found than the Illinois-Iowa game, when the Illinois won the game by working the outside kick. It was many days since that play had been used, yet it is still legitimate and in fine working form, as shown by the success the Illinois had with it.

Must Subscribe More

Dividing the people of Canada into three classes — the comparatively poor, the moderately wealthy, and the very wealthy — it would seem that if contributions to the Victory Loans constitute service to the nation, the moderately wealthy class is hardly doing its share. Of the money subscribed to the Victory Loan 1918, two hundred and seventy-one million dollars were in bonds of $5,000 and under, ninety-four millions in bonds of between $5,000 and $25,000, and three hundred and one millions in bonds of $25,000 and over.

The Class photograph of 3rd year Science will be taken at 10.55 a.m. Friday, the 7th November, on the steps of the Chemistry Building.

MED. UNDERGRADS.

Any undergraduate in Medicine desiring to subscribe to the Victory Loan are asked to inform their Class Presidents or else report direct to the McGill Loan H.Q.S. in the Union at 5 p.m. any week-day until Nov. 15, and give their subscription direct to J. L. O'Brien who will credit the Faculty team with their subscriptions.

Class Presidents are to report any subscriptions received to the Team Captain at the Union at 5 p.m. any week-day. Blank forms may be obtained at the Loan H.Q.S., and all information regarding the Loan. All Class Presidents are asked to report on Thursday, Nov. 6, at the Union at 5 p.m.

ATTENTION TO HARRIERS.

All men turning out for the Harriers must hand their names in. Those who are in Science, to the Janitor of the Science Building; those in Arts, to the Janitor of the Arts Building; and those in Medicine, to the Janitor of the Medical Building. Men who neglect to hand in their names will not be excused from lectures, so make sure your name is given to the janitor if you purpose turning out.

SCI '21 PICTURE.

Students of Sci. '21 are reminded that the class photograph will be taken at 10.55 a.m. Friday, the 7th November, on the steps of the Chemistry Building.

R.M.C. vs. MCGILL.

The game between R.M.C. and McGill will take place on Saturday, Nov. 8, at 10.30 a.m. The general admission will be 50c, including tax. Everybody is urged to be out and to support the team.

NEWFOUNDLANDERS.

The second meeting of the Newfoundland Club will take place on Monday the 10th, at 7.30, in Strathcona Hall.

On account of the discussion of the Constitution it is particularly desirable that every Newfoundlander at McGill attend.

of opinion that the Canadians are a lightly taxed people, whereas, in reality, a comparison shows a much heavier tax per head than in the United Kingdom or in the United States. The most important factor in the direct taxation of the future is without doubt the income tax, and this was discussed at length and clearly explained.

The next subject is that of war loans and financing. The question here is, "How is the state to acquire money to pay for its war needs?" There are two evident sources which could be tapped, namely, credit inflation and real savings. It was shown that it would be unsound policy to tap the first of these, since it is in itself unsound. The real savings, however, present a sound and important source of revenue which can be procured by loans or taxes.

Mr. Kern then summarized the war loans up to date, and showed the relation of the subscriptions and amounts raised.

The last heading is that of the national debt. In 1914, there was a gross debt of approximately three billions, and assets of approximately one billion, leaving a net debt of slightly over two billions. During the war this has multiplied itself many times, and for the month of September, 1919, alone, sixty-seven million dollars was added to the debt. The various aspects of this situation were discussed at length, but the future alone can show the developments.

In conclusion, it was said that the financial outlook in Canada is serious but by no means hopeless. We are a new country with great natural resources. What we need is a sound immigration policy whereby efficient and energetic people may be brought into the country in sufficient numbers to enable us to realize full value from our resources. The great need in the development of the country is foresight and team play on the part of the people living in it.

On conclusion of the paper, the meeting was thrown open to discussion, and several of the returned men who had been founder-members, spoke. The discussion centred mainly around the topics of the excess business profits tax and the income tax. Much interesting and instructive discussion ensued, and all obtained valuable information on these important subjects.

The next paper will be delivered by Mr. Farthing on "The Labor Movement in England," on November 24th. Sherbrooke College, Montreal.

MACDONALD IS COSMOPOLITAN IN CHARACTER

Many Students From Other British Colonies.

CANADA PROMINENT.

Educational System Attracts Students By Its Completeness.

To the ordinary layman Macdonald College, as a faculty of McGill, appears provincial in the make up of the student body. For the most part this is true, but a very striking feature to be noticed is the considerable number of additional outside students from all sections of the globe.

Take the current year, for example, to prove what Macdonald has been, and is, doing to introduce herself to practical and noticing minds as well as to those wishing to acquaint themselves not only with the practical, but also provide themselves with all the theory that could be gained from any school with a curriculum established along these lines.

Students from outside of Canada come for the most part from the States, but we find the Empire well represented, including Great Britain, South Africa, the West Indies and Newfoundland. From the United States we find seven states represented even coming from as far south as "Sunny" Florida. Going still further south we have also one member from British Guiana, South America. Now, narrowing the generalization down a little, we can boast also of a representation from every province of the Dominion.

After even the most casual layman has studied the whole list, ranging from north to south through the greatest possible extent, and east and west, to encompass the globe; and coming from every clime, from every walk in life, from every varied mode of living, and where even in their own society are able, to obtain excellent educational advantages, he will begin then only to recognize the outstanding features of a course in Macdonald.

Canada recognizes well her unique position in the world to-day, and we are glad to note that she is taking every available opportunity to justify her pre-eminence among the nations by providing educational attractions for her rising generations; also by helping principally the returned man to get at once upon his feet to make a fresh start in civil life, having the proper kind of help and environment so necessary in promulgating sound social relations and tending to quash attempts toward such unnaturalness as Bolshevism, or its associate evils.

Observing men and women everywhere, as said before, realizing the sound educational system of Canada have naturally turned to this college as being a very fitted place to complete their school work, and consequently it is very evident that Macdonald is not only a provincial attraction but that outsiders everywhere are taking advantage of a Canadian educational system.

INTERCOLLEGIATE SPORTS PROPOSED

Indoor Sports With Guelph Subject Of Much Discussion and Enthusiasm.

There is a very strong feeling at the present time among the men students that the Intercollegiate Indoor Sports between Guelph and Macdonald should be renewed. And rightly so. The commencement of these sports again would put the Athletic Association on its feet, and go a long way towards helping to turn out first class teams in baseball, basketball and hockey. The Literary Society is also included in this as an intercollegiate debate is always pulled off at the same time.

Guelph were down here in 1914, and all the sports were very closely contested, with enthusiasm running high throughout the college. The reason for the stoppage of the Intercollegiate was of course the war. However, the war being over now, there is no reason why we cannot get it going again.

It is hoped that both the president of the Athletic Association and of the Literary Society will take the matter up at once with the proper authorities, and find out if Guelph are in favor of it as we are. And if so—let's get on with it and make it a success.

NOTICES.

The College Orchestra wants a few more pieces to make it complete. The selections they gave us last night were excellent, but a little more volume is desired. Anyone with musical tendencies will be doubly welcomed. Do not be backward and think it is too late. There is a whole year ahead, so come along now.

Mr. Stanton will give a lecture on Saturday forenoon in the High School on "The Message of Music." A good attendance is expected. This is a fine opportunity to get something worth while. Every endeavor should be made to be there, as it is not every day we can listen to a lecture from such talent.

GLEE CLUB AGAIN STARTING.

There will be a meeting next Thursday night at 6.45 p.m. in the Assembly Hall, for the formation of a Glee Club. The success of this club will depend largely upon the number of attendance, as well as the material available. Anybody who can sing should make it a point to be there. The Glee Club is a large social and entertaining factor, and it is a splendid chance to improve our abilities in a way worth while.

The President of the House Committee wishes to remind the presidents of each year, that two men are to be nominated for the House Committee from their respective years to replace the retiring members. One from each is to be elected at a joint meeting of all men students, which will take place in Room 107, Main Building, at noon on Monday.

The Lead Pipers Rifle Club will hold their first "shoot" to-night at 6.45 p.m. A good turnout is expected. A. R. Jones and T. G. Major will superintend. Strict fire discipline must at all times be kept during these practices.

LOST.

Small silver prayer beads, about Oct. 1st. Finder please return and receive reward. Grace Rough, Main Building.

On Wednesday, in Main Building, or Woman's Residence, a diamond. Finder please return to Miss Winifred Southwood. Reward.

ENJOYABLE FEED.

An enjoyable feed was held Wednesday night in the "Pill Box." The girls arrived promptly at 8.30 with their cups and plates, all looking charming in dainty evening dresses, with gorgeous opera cloaks to match. The "eats" which were the feature of the evening, consisted of Bologna sausage, sandwiches, shrimp salad and ginger ale. Misses Mathewman and Nalamith made charming hostesses. The room was decorated with peaches and nuts (mostly nuts). We all hope they will give another feed in the near future.

LITERARY MEETING.

"All meet in the alcove on the second floor! Pass the word along!" This went buzzing around during a lecture and resulted in a full meeting of Section B Teachers. Briefly, and to the point, Miss F. Joseph (president) outlined the rules governing the elocutionary contest and urged all those who had any reciting ability to volunteer as candidates in the contest. Several names were handed in, and Section B will see to it that their contribution will make a good showing.

The girls of Sec. "C" had an agreeable surprise this morning, all the sewing machines had been repaired in the sewing room.

LOCAL TALENT UNCOVERED AT LIT. MUSICALE

Well Balanced Programme Effectively Rendered.

INAUGURATES SERIES.

College Orchestra's Selections Well Received.

The first musical evening of the season met with great approval. Each and every item on the programme was fitting and very much appreciated by all. If one may judge by the applause that rang through the hall. One of the main features of the programme was the first appearance of our college orchestra. Great was the surprise of the audience when the orchestra approached the stage. It certainly was a fair representation of the college folk as a body. Members of the staff, Schools of Agriculture, Teachers, and also the High School were present.

The president of the Literary and Debating Society, in a few words, outlined what was in store for our future meetings, and assured everyone that the executive committee were planning to make each meeting just a little more enjoyable than the previous one. From the result of this meeting we feel that their aim is high, and our outlook for future meetings is very promising.

The programme consisted of:
Vocal solo, "Homeland," by Miss Mande Zeederberg, and as an encore, "Until," She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Rosalie O. Osthulzen and violin Miss Viola Zeederberg.

Selection by College Orchestra—"Chant sans paroles," and as an encore, "Intermezzo." The orchestra is under the leadership of Mr. Stanton, and is composed of: Piano, Miss Shortly; violins, Mrs. Stanton, Dean Laird, Miss V. Zeederberg, A. R. Jones, Mr. Perroon, Master Arthur Snell; cello, L. A. Gnaedinger; viola, Mr. Chapman.

Recitation, Miss S. D. Nicholson, who gave three numbers: "As the Moon Rose," "Blegy in a Country Church Yard," "The Village School," "If I could b-b-be by her-her."
Cello solo, by L. A. Gnaedinger, "Cantlenna," followed by "Romance sans Paroles." In these he was accompanied by Miss Thelma Zeederberg.

Vocal solo, by Mrs. A. R. Mine, "Slave Song," and two encores, "Night of Romance" and "Just You," accompanied on the piano by Miss Armstrong.

Selection by College Orchestra—"Madelon" and "Gates of Gladness." The Assembly Hall was filled to the doors, which made it superfluous to ask anyone to move forward and fill the front seats.

Good attendance, good attention and the co-operation of all is all that is asked for a season of enjoyable evenings.

The meeting closed by singing a few college songs and "God-Save the King."

DRASTIC MEASURES.

Say! What's all the row? With one accord we left the meeting and ran to the door. On opening it, the tumult came in like a flood, and on looking into the corridor we saw the Freshmen—a mass of seething humanity—dragging, pushing and carrying their latest victim down to the black waters of the tank. They paused a moment on the brink, then, "One, two, three; all together, boys!" and a heavy splash was the quick response as an object of sprawling legs and wildly clawing arms disappeared into the depths. It rose, it sank, it rose and sank again, until even the rebellious Freshmen were moved to pity and hurried to the rescue.

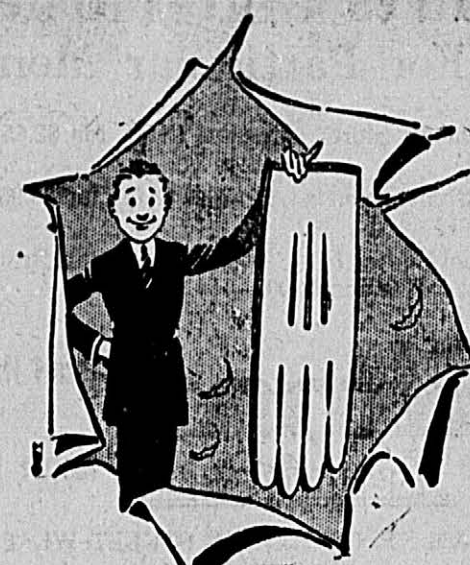

It was a very crestfallen, saddened and bedraggled picture, as, still choking and spluttering, it was hauled ashore. Now all sinners take warning, your sins will surely find you out. This is an age when news flashes round alarmingly fast. Walk warily in your footsteps, for retribution falls heavy upon the offender. Remember that a drop of water in time may save a duckling.

SENIORS ANIMAL JUDGING.

The Seniors left this morning for the farm of J. E. Arnold, of Grenville, Que., where they will have some outside practice in the judging of Percherons. J. E. Arnold has a reputation as a breeder of Percherons, and the Seniors are fortunate to have such good material to work with. For a number of years his stock has taken prizes at all the principal fairs in Eastern Canada.

On Saturday they are going to Howick to get some work with Clydesdales. They are looking forward to visiting the famous Clydesdales known throughout the province as second to none.

The Seniors are making the most of this outside judging work, and are getting their hand in for the Chicago competition.

The success of this club will depend largely upon the number of attendance, as well as the material available. Anybody who can sing should make it a point to be there. The Glee Club is a large social and entertaining factor, and it is a splendid chance to improve our abilities in a way worth while.

The President of the House Committee wishes to remind the presidents of each year, that two men are to be nominated for the House Committee from their respective years to replace the retiring members. One from each is to be elected at a joint meeting of all men students, which will take place in Room 107, Main Building, at noon on Monday.

The Leadfingers Rifle Club will hold their first "shoot" to-night at 6.45 p.m. A good turnout is expected. A. R. Jones and T. G. Major will superintend. Strict fire discipline must at all times be kept during these practices.

ENJOYABLE FEED.

An enjoyable feed was held Wednesday night in the "Pill Box." The girls arrived promptly at 8.30 with their cups and plates, all looking charming in dainty evening dresses, with gorgeous opera cloaks to match. The "cats" which were the feature of the evening, consisted of Bologna sausage, sandwiches, shrimp salad and ginger ale. Misses Mathewman and Nalmsmith made charming hostesses. The room was decorated with peaches and nuts (mostly nuts). We all hope they will give another feed in the near future.

LITERARY MEETING.

"All meet in the alcove on the second floor! Pass the word along!" This went buzzing around during a lecture and resulted in a full meeting of Section B Teachers. Briefly, and to the point, Miss F. Joseph (president) outlined the rules governing the elocutionary contest and urged all those who had any reciting ability to volunteer as candidates in the contest. Several names were handed in, and Section B will see to it that their contribution will make a good showing.

The girls of Sec. "C" had an agreeable surprise this morning, all the sewing machines had been repaired in the sewing room.

LOCAL TALENT UNCOVERED AT LIT. MUSICALE

Well Balanced Programme Effectively Rendered.

INAUGURATES SERIES.

College Orchestra's Selections Well Received.

The first musical evening of the season met with great approval. Each and every item on the programme was fitting and very much appreciated by all. If one may judge by the applause that rang through the hall. One of the main features of the programme was the first appearance of our college orchestra. Great was the surprise of the audience when the orchestra approached the stage. It certainly was a fair representation of the college folk as a body. Members of the staff, Schools of Agriculture, Teachers, and also the High School were present.

The president of the Literary and Debating Society, in a few words, outlined what was in store for our future meetings, and assured everyone that the executive committee were planning to make each meeting just a little more enjoyable than the previous one. From the result of this meeting we feel that their aim is high, and our outlook for future meetings is very promising.

The programme consisted of:
Vocal solo, "Homeland," by Miss Mande Zeederberg, and as an encore, "Until." She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Rosalie O. Osthuizen and violin Miss Viola Zeederberg.
Selection by College Orchestra—"Chant sans paroles," and as an encore, "Intermezzo." The orchestra is under the leadership of Mr. Stanton, and is composed of: Piano, Miss Shortly; violins, Mrs. Stanton, Dean Laird, Miss V. Zeederberg, A. R. Jones, Mr. Porroa, Master Arthur Snell; cello, L. A. Gnaedinger; viola, Mr. Chapman.

Recitation, Miss S. D. Nicholson, who gave three numbers: "As the Moon Rose," "Elegy in a Country Church Yard," "The Village School." "If I e-c-could b-b-be by he-her."

Cello solo, by L. A. Gnaedinger, "Cantilena," followed by "Romance sans Paroles." In these he was accompanied by Miss Thelma Zeederberg. Vocal solo, by Mrs. A. R. Milne, "Slave Song," and two encores, "Night of Romance" and "Just You," accompanied on the piano by Miss Armstrong.

Selection by College Orchestra—"Madelon" and "Gates of Gladness."

The Assembly Hall was filled to the doors, which made it superfluous to ask anyone to move forward and fill the front seats.

Good attendance, good attention and the co-operation of all is all that is asked for a season of enjoyable evenings.

The meeting closed by singing a few college songs and "God Save the King."

DRASTIC MEASURES.

Say! What's all the row? With one accord we left the meeting and ran to the door. On opening it, the tumult came in like a flood, and on looking into the corridor we saw the Freshmen—a mass of seething humanity—dragging, pushing and carrying their latest victim down to the black waters of the tank. They paused a moment on the brink, then, "One, two, three; all together, boys!" and a heavy splash was the quick response as an object of sprawling legs and wildly clawing arms disappeared into the depths. It rose, it sank, it rose and sank again, until even the rebellious Freshmen were moved to pity and hurried to the rescue.

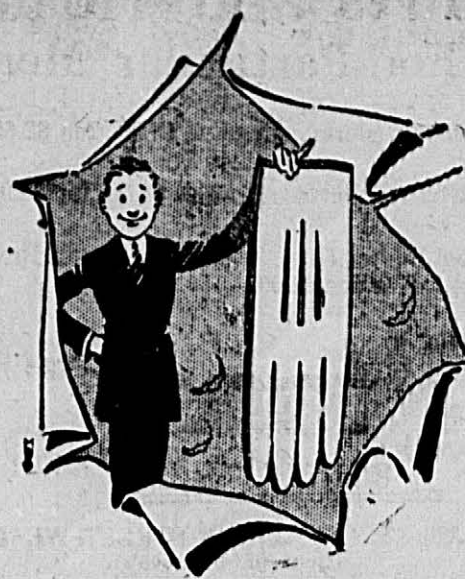

It was a very crestfallen, saddened and bedraggled picture, as, still choking and spluttering, it was hauled ashore. Now, all sinners take warning, your sins will surely find you out. This is an age when news flashes round alarmingly fast. Walk warily in your footsteps, for retribution falls heavy upon the offender. Remember that a drop of water in time may save a ducking.

SENIORS ANIMAL JUDGING.

The Seniors left this morning for the farm of J. E. Arnold, of Grenville, Que., where they will have some outside practice in the judging of Percherons. J. E. Arnold has a reputation as a breeder of Percherons, and the Seniors are fortunate to have such good material to work with. For a number of years his stock has taken prizes at all the principal fairs in Eastern Canada.

On Saturday they are going to Howick to get some work with Clydesdales. They are looking forward to visiting the famous Clydesdales known throughout the province as second to none.

The Seniors are making the most of this outside judging work, and are getting their hand in for the Chicago competition.

LARGE NUMBER OF WRESTLERS AT PRACTICE

Mr. Smith Lectures On Preventions Of Accidents.

NEW MEN OUT.

Yesterday afternoon another wrestling practice was held by the B. W. and F. The men were on the floor at 5.15 sharp, so that the practice was able to start on time. The new mat had not arrived, so that it was still necessary for the men to hop around on the waxed floor, which, although it served the purpose, was the cause of much amusement to the onlookers and annoyance to the wrestlers.

After roll call, Mr. Smith put the men through the usual process of weightlifting (as it is termed by the fellows), to give them a proper sense of poise, position and balance. A few more movements in wrestling which may be carried out while standing were now shown. In each case, speed and accuracy of movement were the necessary factors, and in each case the movement was so made as to enable the man to get behind his opponent.
 Once in this position, he may follow up the advantage thus gained in several ways, as his adversary, due to this manoeuvre, is in very poor equilibrium.

Following this exercise, the men fell into line in pairs. Each pair was then given a chance to have a short bout on the mat, where any faults which they had acquired would be brought out and corrected by their instructor. One of the chief defects which has been brought out so far is the habit of a man to put out his arm behind him to ease a fall. Such an act is a very serious mistake, for a heavy weight falling on the one support causes too great a stress, and, as a result, a bone is apt to be broken or the elbow is apt to be put out of joint. Such an action does not prevent a fall, and, moreover, it is quite unnecessary, because the mat is quite thick enough to keep a man from hitting the hard boards. Another thing which is quite an impediment to the progress of the club is the habit that some men have of coming to a practice without stockings and sweaters, or knee and elbow pads. For the first few practices at least, or until the skin on all parts of the body which are apt to rub against the mat has become hardened, it is best to keep those parts well covered and so prevent bruises.

Following the practice, all the men went down to the dressing rooms and took their showers. To-night there was a considerable shortage of towels, but it is hoped that before next week this difficulty and inconvenience will be overcome. The next wrestling practice will be held on Tuesday next at five-fifteen, and remember your elbows and knees, fellows. Be prepared to keep the skin on.

UNDERGRADUATE MEETING.

There will be a meeting of the Undergraduate Society on Friday, Nov.
 7th, at one o'clock, in the Common Room. Capt. J. M. Humphrey, M.L., will give a short address on the Victory Loan. Even though you feel you cannot buy a bond, show your patriotic and college spirit by attending this meeting.

 cial rate for McGill. Mr. Maurice

HARRIERS' RUN TO-DAY SHOULD BE CLOSE ONE

First Four Men Will Run in Inter-Collegiate Run.

NO POSTPONEMENT.

The annual inter-faculty harrier run which was postponed last Wednesday on account of the impossible weather conditions, will be held this afternoon at 4.15 sharp, from the Stadium. The executive are determined to pull off the event to-day, rain or shine, and are very keen that all harriers who have turned out to date will put in an appearance. The ground may be a little sloppy underfoot, but this fact ought merely to prove a new feature of interest and increase the uncertainty of the final result.

Fifteen men put in an appearance on Wednesday in spite of the blizzard raging at the time, but the Arts and Medical teams can consider themselves lucky that no race was held. At least eight of the fifteen were from Science, and the contest would undoubtedly have resulted in a walk-over for the engineers. Now that all uncertainty as to the run coming off has been removed, it is confidently expected that Arts, Medicine and Science will be represented by at least ten men each. The first four men to finish in the run this afternoon will make up the Intercollegiate team. The executive are very glad to announce that Hamilton, the three-mile Intercollegiate champion, will be the fifth man. "Hammy" has been taking a well-deserved rest since his exertions at the track meet, and is hardly in condition to tackle the run to-day, but has promised to turn out next week. There is every reason for hoping that he will give the McGill team a good start by finishing first in the big meet, and if Antliff can make second, we should finish well in front when the final score is reckoned. However, every man on the team has got to do his part, and it is only by keen competition to-day that a fair chance will be given to pick the very best possible men to fill the other

The Editor, McGill Daily.

Dear Sir:—

I would like to bring to your attention a matter which I think deserves notice in your columns. I refer to the organization of a University baseball team or teams. Last winter, the indoor track meet was held in the Craig street Drill Hall, would it not be possible to secure either this or the Bleury street hall, for indoor baseball this winter.

Owing to the duration of the college terms, McGill students have no opportunity for outdoor baseball, and as there are many enthusiasts of the game around college, there is no reason why the indoor game should not become very popular. It might be possible for each Faculty to run a team, and to stage a series of inter-faculty games which should provide some good sport.

Given the support of the students and a suitable hall for play, there is no reason why indoor baseball should not prove one of the most popular branches of University sport.

Yours truly,

J. R. F.

three positions.

With Hamilton off the Medical team, it looks as if the inter-faculty meet will resolve itself into an extremely close contest between Arts and Science. The former consider that Egg, Antliff, Desbarats and Dowdall, along with numerous speedy substitutes, can make the Science team look pretty slow, but many of the latter are anxious to prove otherwise, and quite a spirit of rivalry has been developed.

There is no limit placed on the number of entries allowed, and we expect to see at least thirty men out this afternoon. ALL UP, HARRIERS!
